

YOUR VOICE MATTERS!

APRIL 13, 2024

CARLOW UNIVERSITY LIFTS UP
WORLD VOICE
DAY

Save the Date!

Celebrate the importance of the human voice with an Emmy Award winner, Guinness World Record holders, America's Got Talent finalist, TEDx Speaker, and Carlow University's Department of Speech-Language Pathology on April 13, 2024! Join us to celebrate World Voice Day and being devoted to the future of you through an interactive course of lectures, live demonstrations, experiential "how-to" learning, and a live concert!

Learn how to prevent and treat voice problems commonly experienced by teachers, the aged voice, and discover the intricate relationship between your voice and emotions!
