

SPRING 2024 EVENTS SCHEDULE

FEBRUARY

2/19 Implementing Coding and Building with Microbits into the Curriculum

6:30 p.m. | AJP

Facilitated by James Jenkins, attendees will have the opportunity to learn how to code and build using Microbits and see how this technology has applications for multiple grade levels and classrooms.

2/20 Negro Leagues Event

6 – 7:30 p.m. | Gailliot Center, University Commons, Fifth Floor

As part of Carlow University's Black History Month celebration, all are invited to hear about the Negro League players and teams from Sean L. Gibson, the executive director of the Josh Gibson Foundation and the great grandson of Josh Gibson, the legendary Negro Leagues player who died in January 1947 and was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1972.

2/26 Carlow Impact Series: Solutions for a More Sustainable World

7 - 9 p.m. | Rosemary Heyl Theater

This exclusive gathering brings together top global visionaries and local leaders in the field of sustainability to explore powerful transformative actions. Interactive conversation will be led by President Dr. Kathy Humphrey (PhD) and will include John Fernandez, Susan O'Rourke, Erin Mallea, and Dr. Jennifer Roth (PhD).

2/29 Raising Our Voices

7 p.m. | Online

Join Us for the Carlow MFA Alumni reading series featuring: Phillip Border, Brian Broome, Linda Schifino, and Fred Shaw.

MARCH

3/2 Art & Learning: Embracing Differences by Embracing Ourselves

10 a.m. | Online

Sarah Zeffiro, Carlow Arts and Education Instructor, and Leigh Roche, visual arts teacher at the Campus Laboratory School, will lead a workshop focusing on art, cognition, diversity, mindfulness, and social-emotional learning.

3/9 Community Violence Prevention

10 a.m. | AJP

Join the Faith-Based Health Collaborative founded by Rev. Dr. Brenda J. Gregg and Blessed.

3/16 Patricia Dobler Poetry Award Reading

10 a.m. | On Campus

A public reading featuring the judge and winner of the 2023 Patricia Dobler Poetry Award. (Patricia Dobler was a faculty member who was to be the inaugural director of the MFA program, but unexpectedly died before the program officially launched.)

3/22 Psychoanalytic Psychotherapies in the Contemporary World

6 - 8 p.m. | Gailliot

Psychoanalytic Psychotherapies in the Contemporary World Annual Speaker's Series Jeremy Elkins, PhD, Bryn Mawr College, associate professor of jurisprudence, political thought, and This is part of an annual speaker series bridging psychoanalytic thought, experience, and culture.

3/23 Celtic Celebration (Accepted Student Day)

9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. | Various locations across campus

All accepted students are invited to campus to experience Carlow campus life and activities, and are encouraged to place their deposit for enrollment.

APRIL

TBD Pizza with the President

4/4 8th Annual Dorothy Holley Memorial Reading

7 p.m. | Gailliot

A public poetry reading followed by reception and book sales.

4/6 Art and Writing: Tools for Reflection and Learning in Art and Grant Writing

10 a.m. | Online

Join Sarah Zeffiro, Carlow Arts and Education instructor, and Patty Beaumont, Carlow alumna and Vice President of Advancement for Urban Impact, as they explore ways in which art and writing intersect and learn tools for reflection in both the art and writing worlds.

4/12 Psychoanalytic Psychotherapies in the Contemporary World

6 - 8 p.m. | Gailliot

Annual Speaker's Series

Gila Ashtor, PhD, LP, Columbia University, adjunct professor in the School of Arts and Sciences and a clinical instructor in psychology (psychiatry). The author of three books, Dr. Ashtor specializes in critical theory, psychoanalysis, and literature.

4/14 World Voice Day

1 - 6 p.m. | Various locations on campus

Hosted by Jackie Gartner-Schmidt, PhD, CCC-SLP, ASHA Fellow, and TEDx Speaker, Carlow's World Voice Day will involve an interactive afternoon with lectures, live demonstrations, and practical learning.

4/15 "Your Face Belongs to Us: Ethics and Facial Recognition"

5:30 - 7 p.m. | Rosemary Heyl Theatre, Antonian Hall

Sponsored by the Atkins Center for Ethics, Kashmir Hill, a journalist at The New York Times and the author of YOUR FACE BELONGS TO US, will speak about the looming tech dystopia and how it can be avoided.

4/16 Simple Interactions Part 2: Noticing and Appreciating Simple Interactions

6 p.m. | Online

In this session, attendees will discuss how simple daily interactions weave together four basic building blocks of the human relationship – connection, reciprocity, inclusion, and opportunity to grow – to make positive developmental impacts.

4/16 Dionne's Story Reading

6 p.m. | Gailliot

A public reading for the Dionne's Story Project. Dionne White was an undergraduate student who was a victim of domestic violence that ultimately took her life. Because Dionne suffered in silence, her classmates and professors never knew that she needed help. Dionne's Project was started to raise awareness about domestic violence.

4/18 Carlow Scholar's Day

Free • Public Event

1 - 8 p.m. | AJP Atrium and first floor classrooms

This annual conference highlights the scholarly research and achievements completed by the University's students, faculty, and staff.

Featured speaker: Alumni Melanie Heuston, D.N.P., R.N., N.E.A.-B.C. serves as WVU Health System's inaugural chief nursing executive.

4/19 - 4/20 Reunion Weekend

Various locations

Mark your calendars for Reunion Weekend.

Festivities include a Pirates Game, Global Mission Moment and a Celebratory Dinner with the President.

MAY

5/4 Commencement Ceremony

11 a.m. | Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Hall & Museum (doors open at 9:30 a.m.)

Find these events and more at carlow.edu/events.

CARLOW
UNIVERSITY

Devoted to the Future of You.